Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 70, 73-80, 83-89, and 92-100 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reason for allowance:

The present invention is directed to a method and system for reprogramming instructions or routing parameters for a switch. Independent claims 70, 80, 89, 98, 99, and 100 identifies an uniquely distinct feature "at least one proxy server client which stores requested data in a local cache if the request for data is unable to be fulfilled by the server within the predetermined target period". The closest prior art, Moore et al. (U.S. 6,618,752) discloses a system for multicasting a datastream transmits portable child hosts to client computers requesting to receive the multicast, whether taken alone or in combination fails to anticipate or render the above underline.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reason for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jeffrey C. Pwu whose telephone number is 571-272-6798.
